

GARFIELD GOLF RESULTS FOR WEEK ENDING SUNDAY 15/7/18

THE MALE MAN DELIVERS

It was a great day for golf on Saturday with clear and fine conditions through the day. A field of 84 agreed and lined up for a game of single par. Shane Male had a brilliant round and came out on top with a final score of plus four which included the two birdies playing off his mark of just 4. Mick Neylan also had a good round to finish runners up for the A Grade event with a score of plus three playing off his handicap of 10, one shot to the better of Russ Loughridge playing off his handicap of 11. John Coutts won the B Grade event on a count back from Marty Atkins with a final score of plus one whilst Sepp Krummenacher won the C Grade event with a score of plus two one shot in advance of Jason Ridler and Rod Norton. A total of 21 players or 25% of the field were able to play to their handicap or better with a final score of square required to get a ball down the line. Leesa Matthews cleaned up for the ladies with a winning score of minus one which included the four nearest the pins. Thursday proved a good day for scoring as well as the day's event attracted a field of 41 players. Peter Skinner did best with a nice score of 40 points playing off his mark of 16, just the one point to the better of Trevor Franklin. Ian Archer had a very good round with a score of 36 points playing off his handicap of just 5. Archer also had the two nearest the pins. John Richer cleaned up the B Grade field with a winning score of 38 points playing off his mark of 28, just the single point in front of Geoff Roberts. A final score of 35 points or better was required to win a ball down the line. Monday's event field was affected by the overcast and showery conditions with only a total of 9 players keen for a game. David Churchill did best with a winning score of 36 points. Next Saturday is an aggregate stable ford event.
